

CARE GROUP

Steve Smith

Chairman

Steve is a former England international rugby player whose career spanned between 1972 and 1983. During that time, he captained Sale, England, the Barbarians and the British & Irish Lions.

In 1987, Steve founded the internationally acclaimed clothing brand Cotton Traders with his former club and national teammate Fran Cotton. He remains Chairman of this company today, guiding it to its current turnover of more than £100m.